To start in the Championship a Nomination must be made to the host club (NZ Metropolitan TC) in the normal manner, prior to the advertised close of Nominations on Monday 8 May 2023.

There are no concessions for fillies or mares.

In addition to the Country Championship Final being run on 12 May at Addington, the $40,000 Uncut Gems races will act as a pre-cursor the week prior. A package of races which should be an appetising carrot for up-and-coming horses, nationwide.

Qualification

To qualify for the Country Championship a horse must have had at least three starts in the scheduled Country Championship Qualifying races. There are 41 qualifying races being run across New Zealand from 21 August 2022 through to 1 May 2023.

To be eligible to contest the Championship race on 12 May 2023, pacers must be rated at R85 or below at the time of their first start in a Country Championship Qualifying race. Or, if rated higher than R85 when first contesting a qualifying race, dropped to a Rating of R85 or less prior to nominations closing for the final qualifying race to be run by Rangiora HRC on Sunday 30 April 2023.

Field selection for the Championship for those horses that have started a minimum of three times in qualifying races will be determined by points accrued in the respective races.

The points system is as follows:

Gold Qualifying Races $20,000 Funded	-	First 10 points, Second 5, Third 3, Fourth 2
Silver Qualifying Races $15,000 Funded	-	First 7 points, Second 4, Third 2, Fourth 1

Some qualifying race stakes may differ from advertised schedules, as clubs have the ability to add to the funded stakes, if they wish. The Preference refers to the classification of races programmed per the HRNZ published schedule.

The Championship Qualifying points table will be displayed on hrnz.co.nz.

Any horses finishing on the same points will be separated, if required, via the following countback: the best placing within the qualifying races, if still equal then the second-best placing, if still equal then the most qualifying race starts. If a tie still exists horses will be separated based on total career stake money won.

The conditions of the qualifying races will be determined by the host clubs in consultation with HRNZ. The intention being to run the qualifying races as close to what is normally programmed, accepting there may be required programming changes to ensure the optimum race fields.

Qualifying races will be run in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of Harness Racing New Zealand Inc. This particularly relates to starter numbers and front-line limits.

A schedule of the qualifying races and championship status is attached separately.

Other

In the event a horse eligible to start in the Championship has its Rating drop below R50 it will remain eligible.

Being eliminated from a qualifying race or being an emergency that does not gain a start will not count towards a horse's eligibility for the Championship.

Should sufficient entries be received for the Championship a consolation will be run for a stake of $15,000 - to be determined by the host club and HRNZ.

Horses qualifying to start in the Championship (top 16) will not be permitted to start in any other race at the NZ Metropolitan TC's meeting on 12 May 2023.

In the event a qualifying race is not run, for any reason, HRNZ will determine if a replacement race is to be sought.

There are no pre-payments or fees required for the Championship race.

The Host Club and associated sponsor will provide a Trophy & Dress Rug to the winner.

Any other matters relating to this Championship that require adjudication will be determined by the Chairman of HRNZ.
