New Zealand to take part in the Teal Pants Campaign

Harness Racing New Zealand are thrilled to announce our involvement in the Teal Pants Campaign in support of Ovarian Cancer. This campaign has been successful in Australia and we are excited to raise the same awareness here in New Zealand.

Our aim is to have all of our female drivers wearing teal pants while driving from February 1 2018 until March 11 2018. We have selected three ambassadors who will wear the teal pants and also a pair of teal silks throughout this period to create further awareness around this very important issue.

Our three ambassadors will be Samantha Ottley (Canterbury), Sheree Tomlinson (Southland), and Nicky Chilcott (North Island).

All of our female drivers should have received an email last week from Nicole Stockton of the Women's Cancer Foundation asking for their pants size so that these can be made. If you haven't yet replied to this email please do so as soon as possible- wouldn't it be great if we could have every female driver out supporting this great cause?

If you haven't received the email please contact me directly on the details below.

If you have any questions please don't hesitate to get in contact.

Kind Regards,
